Mrs. McHugh, who is sixty years old, stated that when her husband was owner of the Lexington Hotel several years ago they were depositors in Spur.

The commission further recommends leasing a site in Thirtieth Street, between Ninth and Tenth avenues, with an area 100 by 600 feet. The commission recommends that plans for the new building on the site of the City Hall postal station be immediately prepared. It is urged that the work be forwarded in such a manner that buildings on the City Hall site may be vacated by July 1, 1925, the courts to occupy the buildings to be constructed for them, and the postoffice to be provided with temporary quarters to be rented for use during the period of construction.

Mrs. Stone said she suddenly looked up and saw her husband slip. Then he fell past her, and she saw him strike the face of the cliff, his body turning over and over until he disappeared in the abyss below.

Although Mrs. Stone held faint hope of saving her husband's life, and realized the grave dangers that confronted her in the task that lay ahead, she endeavored to go to his rescue. Fastening a rope to the edge of a ledge she climbed rapidly down until she reached the end of the rope. Hitchcock Cannot List His Debts in Two Hours

Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, appeared yesterday before John J. Townsend, referee in bankruptcy at the latter's office, 299 Broadway to give evidence in support of his claim that he's entirely out of funds and unable to pay the $2,000 due Jack Welsh, former manager of "Hitchy Koo."

Mr. Hitchcock is a voluntary petitioner in bankruptcy. He was called yesterday to give a list of his liabilities and assets. Mopping his brow and looking very hot indeed, Mr. Hitchcock said that his liabilities were either too numerous or too involved for a discussion scheduled to last only two hours. The case was adjourned until August 25.

It was with an air of sadness that Mr. Hitchcock spoke of "Hitchy Koo." It had left him, he said, with nothing but an assortment of notes, pawn tickets and scenery. The last named, Mr. Hitchcock said was stored in a warehouse and the bill for storage was due to-morrow. He did not expect to be able to pay it, and told the referee that if he thought he could use a few comedy acts to decorate his office, he could have them.

Asked about his country home in Great Neck, L. I. and his automobile, and his diamond rings, Mr. Hitchcock said he had given them to his wife.
